CERTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS

If you are not able to provide the original documents in person, or only a copy of the original documents can be provided, the documents must be certified (or verified by an ANZ Bank staff member, or ANZ Investments approved financial adviser).

WHAT IS A “CERTIFIED COPY”?\n
A certified copy is a photocopy of an original document. A person who is authorised to certify documents, must sight the original and the copy and make sure both documents are identical. Any certified documentation you send to us must include the certifier’s full name, occupation, and be signed and dated by the certifier within the last three months.

If the identification has a photo image, the certifier must state on the copy: “I certify this is a true copy of the original document, which I have sighted, and it represents a true likeness of the individual”.

If the identification does not have a photo image (e.g. residential address documents), the certifier must sight the original and state on the copy: “I have sighted the original and certify this is a true copy of the original document”.

The following persons can certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies:

- New Zealand lawyer
- New Zealand Chartered Accountant
- Notary Public
- Justice of the Peace
- Sworn member of the Police (service not available at all police stations, check before visiting)
- A person who has legal authority to take statutory declarations (or equivalent in New Zealand).

Ensure you have both sides of any double sided identification certified, as we need to evidence full name, signature and expiry date.

ANZ INVESTMENTS APPROVED FINANCIAL ADVISERS ONLY

If the identification has a photo image, the financial adviser must state on the copy: “I confirm I have sighted the original and this is a true copy that represents the true likeness of the individual”.

If the identification does not have a photo image (e.g. residential address documents), the financial adviser must sight the original and state on the copy: “I confirm I have sighted the original and this is a true copy of the original document”.

The financial adviser must also include their full name, occupation, signature and date.
