ANZ CREDIT CARD REPAYMENT INSURANCE

We have agreed to issue you this Policy on the terms set out in this Policy Document.

Your Policy comes with a 30-day 'cooling off period'. If you decide it's not for you and the Primary Cardholder cancels it within 30 days of the Policy Commencement Date, we will refund all the premiums you've paid.

WHAT DOES ANZ CREDIT CARD REPAYMENT INSURANCE COVER YOU FOR?

The purpose of ANZ Credit Card Repayment Insurance is to help repay the debt on your ANZ Credit Card in the event of:

- Death or Terminal Illness
- Critical Illness (cancer, coronary artery bypass surgery, heart attack or stroke)
- Permanent Disability
- Temporary Disability
- Redundancy, if you are not Self-employed
- Bankruptcy, if you are Self-employed.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO BE COVERED?

The Primary Cardholder of your ANZ Credit Card account (being the first person named on the credit card application form for your ANZ Credit Card) and one nominated Additional Cardholder or Joint Cardholder are eligible to apply for cover under this Policy.

Acceptance is guaranteed provided the cardholders are aged over 18 and under 75. If any cardholder is aged over 65, only the death and Terminal Illness covers will apply to that cardholder.

The persons covered under this Policy are the insured cardholders shown on your policy schedule. References to "you" or "your" in this document are to the insured cardholder(s).

This Policy cannot be assigned to another person.

HOW YOUR PREMIUM IS BILLED

Your premium is billed to your ANZ Credit Card account every month.

The insurance premium will be shown as a separate line on your ANZ Credit Card account statement.

Interest may be payable on the premium, charged at your normal ANZ Credit Card interest rate.

If there is no amount owing, or your ANZ Credit Card account is in credit at the closing date of your monthly statement, there will be no premium to pay for that month.

BENEFITS – WHAT YOU ARE INSURED FOR

SINGLE CARDHOLDERS

If you die or are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness while the Policy is in force, and you are a single cardholder, we will pay the greater of:

- double the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date of death or the date you are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness; or
- double the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date of death or date you are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness, up to a maximum of $60,000 less any payments already received under other benefits as a result of the same, a similar or a related condition or event.

Any premiums paid or interest accrued on the Account Balance from the date of death or diagnosis of a Terminal Illness, until payment is made under this benefit, will be refunded to your ANZ Credit Card account at the same time as payment of the death or Terminal Illness benefit.

In no circumstances will we pay both a death benefit and a Terminal Illness benefit for the same cardholder.

JOINT/ADDITIONAL AND BUSINESS CARDHOLDERS

If you die or are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness while the Policy is in force, and you are a joint, additional or a Business cardholder, we will pay the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date of death or the date you are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness; or
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date of death or date you are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness, up to a maximum of $60,000 less any payments already received under other benefits as a result of the same, a similar or a related condition or event.

Any premiums paid or interest accrued on the Account Balance from the date of death or diagnosis of a Terminal Illness, until payment is made under this benefit, will be refunded to your ANZ Credit Card account at the same time as payment of the death or Terminal Illness benefit.

In no circumstances will we pay both a death benefit and a Terminal Illness benefit for the same cardholder.

HOW DOES DEATH/TERMINAL ILLNESS COVER WORK FOR PRIMARY/ADDITIONAL CARDHOLDERS?

If a death or a Terminal Illness claim is paid in respect of the:

- Primary Cardholder, the Policy will cease for all cardholders
- Additional Cardholder, the Policy will continue for the Primary Cardholder.

HOW DOES DEATH/TERMINAL ILLNESS COVER WORK FOR JOINT CARDHOLDERS?

If a death or a Terminal Illness claim is paid in respect of one cardholder, the Policy will continue for the other cardholder.

CRITICAL ILLNESS

If you are diagnosed with a Critical Illness as specified below while the Policy is in force, we will pay the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date of diagnosis; or
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date of diagnosis, up to a maximum of $60,000 less any payments already received under other benefits as a result of the same, a similar or a related condition or event.

We will only pay one Critical Illness benefit per cardholder.

The Critical Illness benefit is payable on satisfactory proof to Chubb Life that you were first diagnosed as suffering the Critical Illness at least 90 days after the Policy Commencement Date.

The following are the definitions of the Critical Illnesses covered by this policy:

Cancer

Histologically confirmed first diagnosis of one or more malignant tumours; characterised by the uncontrolled growth and spread of malignant cells and the invasion and destruction of normal tissue.

The following tumours are specifically excluded from the Critical Illness cover of this Policy:

- all skin cancers, including hyperkeratoses, squamous or basal cell carcinomas, unless there is evidence of metastases
- carcinoma in situ (including cervical dysplasia CIN1, CIN2 and CIN3), or pre-malignant tumours. Carcinoma in situ of the breast is covered where it leads to the removal of the breast by a mastectomy. The procedure must be performed as a direct result of the carcinoma in situ and specifically to arrest the spread of malignancy, and be considered the necessary and appropriate treatment
- prostate cancer which is histologically described as TNM classification T1 or another equivalent or lesser classification
- melanomas of a skin stage 1 A (thickness 1.0mm or less, Clark Level 2 or 3, and no ulceration)
- chronic lymphocytic leukaemia less than Rai Stage 3
- tumours treated by endoscopic procedures alone.

Coronary artery bypass surgery

The medically necessary open heart surgical grafting of a bypass to a coronary artery to overcome narrowing or obstruction.

Heart attack

We will pay on first diagnosis of the death of a part of the heart muscle due to lack of blood supply to the heart muscle.

The diagnosis must be:

- confirmed by a cardiologist; and
- evidenced by a rise or fall of cardiac biomarkers, such as troponins, with at least one value above the upper reference range of laboratory normal (99th percentile).

One of the following must also apply:

- new cardiac symptoms and signs consistent with myocardial infarction; or
- electrocardiogram (ECG) tests that show new changes associated with a myocardial infarction; or
- imaging evidence of new loss of viable myocardium or new regional wall motion abnormality consistent with a myocardial infarction.

If the above tests are inconclusive, not undertaken, or the tests are outdated due to technical advances, we will consider other appropriate and medically recognised tests that diagnose a heart attack of the same degree of severity as outlined above.

The following are not covered under this definition:

- other acute coronary syndromes
- elevations of troponins in the absence of overt ischaemic disease.

Stroke

A cerebrovascular incident resulting in permanent neurological damage, causing at least a 25% impairment of whole person function that is permanent.

There must be clear evidence on a CT, MRI or similar appropriate scan that a stroke has occurred and of:

- infarction of brain tissue; and
- intracranial or subarachnoid haemorrhage; or
- embolisation from an extracranial source.

The following are excluded:

- Transient Ischaemic Attacks (TIAs); or
- Vascular accidents affecting solely the eyes; or
- Neurological deficits due to migraines, physical head injury or any blood vessel outside the cranium.

PERMANENT DISABILITY

If you are in Employment or Self-employment and are completely unable to engage in work for 120 consecutive days as a result of an Accident or Illness while this Policy is in force and in the opinion of two medical specialists (one appointed by us) appropriate to your disability, your disablement will, in all probability, prevent you from engaging for any hours in any and all work for which you are Reasonably Suited for the rest of your normal working life, we will pay the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date of disablement being medically certified; or
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date of disablement being medically certified, up to a maximum of $60,000 less any payments already received under other benefits as a result of the same, a similar or a related condition or event.

The cost of providing medical evidence is to be met by you; however we will pay the cost of the medical specialist appointed by us.

Both the Temporary and Permanent Disability benefits will cease for you on the acceptance and payment of a Permanent Disability claim.

TEMPORARY DISABILITY

You can claim a monthly benefit if you become Temporarily Disabled for 14 consecutive days (the Wait Period) while this Policy is in force. The monthly benefit will equal 25% of the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date you became Temporarily Disabled; or
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date you became Temporarily Disabled.

This monthly benefit will compensate you from the date you became Temporarily Disabled, with the first benefit payment made following assessment of your claim after the 14 day Wait Period. Further monthly benefits are payable while you continue to be Temporarily Disabled, and will be paid at monthly intervals from the date you became Temporarily Disabled, until the earliest of the following occurs:

- you are no longer Temporarily Disabled; or
- 20 monthly payments have been made under the Temporary Disability benefit in relation to the same, a similar or a related condition or event; or
- you have received a total amount of $60,000 in payments under this Temporary Disability benefit or any other benefit type as a result of the same, a similar or a related condition or event; or
- you reach 65 years of age.

The cost of providing medical evidence is to be met by you, however if we require any additional specialist medical examinations/reports that have not already been recommended or scheduled then such costs would be met by us.

To be entitled to a claim under the Temporary Disability benefit you must require regular treatment and/or supervision from an Approved Medical Practitioner, or if confined to hospital or bed at home such confinement must be medically certified as necessary. A suitable rehabilitation programme must also be undertaken.

Subject to the terms of this Policy, the payment of your claim will be made for the period that an Approved Medical Practitioner has certified you as being Temporarily Disabled.

If you have a claim accepted on the grounds of being unable to engage in Employment or Self-employment then to become eligible to submit any new claim on the same grounds you must return to Employment or Self-employment for a period of at least 14 consecutive days.

If you have a claim accepted on the grounds of being unable to perform an Activity of Daily Living then to become eligible to submit any new claim on the same grounds an Approved Medical Practitioner must certify that for at least 14 consecutive days you are able to perform every Activity of Daily Living that you were able to perform immediately prior to the Policy Commencement Date.

If you have a claim accepted on the grounds of bed confinement then to become eligible to submit any new claim on the same grounds an Approved Medical Practitioner must certify that for at least 14 consecutive days you are not medically confined to bed.

REDUNDANCY

You can claim a monthly benefit if you are in Employment for a continuous period of at least 90 days and, while this Policy is in force, are then made Redundant and remain unemployed for 14 consecutive days (the Wait Period). The monthly benefit will equal 25% of the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the notification date of your Redundancy; or
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the notification date of your Redundancy.

This monthly benefit will compensate you from the date you are made Redundant, with the first benefit payment made following assessment of your claim after the 14 day Wait Period. Further monthly benefits are payable while you remain unemployed, and will be paid at monthly intervals from the date you were made Redundant, until the earliest of the following occurs:

- you return to Employment; or
- you reach the date on which your fixed term contract was originally agreed to end before you were notified of your Redundancy (if you had been on a fixed term contract); or

- the greater of the outstanding Account Balance as at the notification date of your Redundancy or the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the notification date of your Redundancy is paid; or
- you have received a total amount of $60,000 in payments under this Redundancy benefit; or
- you reach 65 years of age.

You must return to Employment for a period of no less than 90 days before you can submit a new claim under the Redundancy benefit.

If you are Self-employed you are not eligible for the Redundancy benefit.

BANKRUPTCY

If you are Self-employed and are made Bankrupt at least 180 days after the Policy Commencement Date and this Policy is in force, we will pay the greater of:

- the total outstanding Account Balance as at the date of Bankruptcy; and
- the Average Closing Balance calculated as at the date of Bankruptcy.

Payment will not exceed a maximum of $60,000. Only one claim for Bankruptcy can be made during the term of this Policy. The Bankruptcy benefit will cease on payment of a Bankruptcy claim.

CLAIMS

HOW DO YOU MAKE A CLAIM?

In the event of a claim, please contact:

ANZ Credit Card Repayment Insurance
Private Bag 92131
Victoria Street West
Auckland 1142
Phone 0800 883 012

So that claims can be dealt with as quickly as possible, the claimant should notify us as soon as possible.

Other than for death claims, notification of a claim should be submitted within 90 days of the occurrence of the event which led to the claim. If a claim is not submitted within this time limit, we may choose not to accept the claim. We are able to choose not to accept a claim if late notification means that we can't assess your claim properly (for example, because evidence we need to assess your claim has been lost or is unavailable).

Full and accurate answers to all questions and prompt receipt of all claim forms, subsequent medical reports and other relevant information will aid prompt assessment of the claim.

In order to assess your claim under the Temporary Disability or Permanent Disability benefits we reserve the right to request any additional information relating to any previous disability claims you have made with any other insurer or ACC.

For Redundancy, you must provide us with a copy of your Redundancy letter, a correctly completed claim form, copies of job applications and responses and confirmation that you have registered with an appropriate employment agency for your occupation.

Adequate proof that you are actively seeking paid employment must be provided to us each month.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS

All information you provide when making a claim, or during the course of a claim under this Policy, must be complete and correct. If any information provided is incomplete or incorrect, or if you or another person have not given us information that you or they know or a reasonable person in the circumstances would be expected to know is relevant to our decision to accept your claim, we may decline to accept your claim and void or cancel this Policy. If we have already paid the claim, we can recover from you the amount we have paid.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

WHEN THE POLICY STARTS

Your Policy starts on your Policy Commencement Date as shown on the policy schedule.

CONCURRENT CLAIMS

Benefits shall not be payable for more than one benefit under this Policy at any one time.

If two cardholders are covered under this Policy and both cardholders are involved in the same Accident then:

- for death claims, we will pay the maximum of the total outstanding Account Balance or the Average Closing Balance as at the date of death up to a maximum of $60,000 in respect of that event
- for Permanent Disability or Temporary Disability claims, we will pay up to a maximum of $60,000 in respect of that event.

CHANGES TO THE POLICY

We can change the insured events and exclusions of this Policy if it is reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate business interests. Examples of when this might happen include:

- if changes in the law or its interpretation occur after the date your Policy started and we reasonably believe that those changes will affect our tax liability, or how the Policy works, or the amount of benefit payable
- if claims experience across all ANZ Credit Card Repayment Insurance policies becomes significantly adverse.

The circumstances listed above are examples only; there may be other situations in which a change to the insured events and exclusions of this Policy is reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate business interests.

If a change to the insured events and exclusions of this Policy is reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate business interests, you will be given at least 90 days' written notice in advance of any such change.

We can change the premium rate of this Policy, provided that we give you at least 90 days' written notice of any change and provided all ANZ Credit Card Repayment Insurance policies issued by us are changed at the same time.

We can change or amend the benefits and exclusions at any time to provide you with additional cover or enhanced benefits.
