By prior agreement with each Supplier, the Principal will register its ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account details with the Supplier so that Authorised Users may be able to purchase goods or services. The Additional Card is a back-up card to be securely stored and only used to replace the Primary Card if the Primary Card is stopped or cancelled by ANZ e.g. in the event of fraud.

The Primary Card and Additional Card remain the property of ANZ at all times and the Principal agrees to return them if asked.

The Principal undertakes to keep the details of the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account in a secure location. The ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account may neither be lent out nor assigned, nor otherwise made available to third parties or to unauthorised persons, whether employed by the Principal or not. The Principal shall destroy the details of the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account and all Primary Cards and Additional Cards upon their expiry.

The Facility is only valid and can only be used if the issued Primary Card and Additional Card have not expired. A new card will be reissued and sent to the Principal before the card expiry date. The details of

In the event that the Facility Limit is exceeded without such approval, the amount by which the Facility Limit is exceeded is immediately payable by the Principal and any further transactions may be declined by ANZ in its absolute discretion until the Facility is brought within the Facility Limit.

The Principal can request ANZ in writing to vary the Facility Limit. If ANZ approves the request, ANZ will notify the Principal of the approval, the effective date of the approval and of any change to the fees and charges payable by the Principal as a result of the approval.

Please be aware that there are risks involved if credit card or account details are given and transactions authorised before goods or services are received. Please ensure the Principal and Authorised Users are cautious when purchasing by phone, mail, over the Internet or in any situation where they are asked to disclose card numbers and card expiry dates in advance of goods or services being received. ANZ recommends that any contracts are read before supplying credit card details and the Principal and Authorised Users should be satisfied about matters such as the validity of the supplier, the terms of sale, their ability to deliver the goods or services, their exchange/refunds policy, currency of sale, contract details and assurances they give about the security of card or account details. In addition, ANZ recommends that copies of order forms and receipts are kept until the goods or services are received.

13. Use of the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account Outside New Zealand

Should the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account be used for transactions outside New Zealand, the transactions will be converted into New Zealand Dollars at a rate of exchange set by Visa. Visa set foreign currency exchange rates from a range of wholesale rates available to them (the rates set may differ from the rate Visa itself receives) that are applicable at the processing date of the transaction. Please note that the date of processing will not necessarily be the date the transaction occurs.

There may be differences in the conversion rate for credits and debits on the same day due to the different buy or sell rates used by Visa.

At the discretion of Visa, Visa transactions will either be converted directly from the currency in which the purchase was made to New Zealand Dollars, or will firstly be converted from the currency in which the purchase was made to US Dollars and then converted to New Zealand Dollars.

Currency conversion charges apply to foreign currency transactions.

ANZ applies a currency conversion charge to all Visa foreign currency transactions debited from the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account.

ANZ applies a currency conversion charge to Visa foreign currency credit transactions (e.g. refunds). In the case of refunds, the currency conversion charge applied to the original debit transaction is not refunded.

Further details of this charge are contained in the Fee Schedule in this Guide.

Use of a the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account overseas may be subject to exchange controls and/or other government requirements. Compliance with these requirements is the Principal's responsibility.

Individual service providers may determine the type of transactions permitted and the transaction limits.

No further credit will be extended on the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account. In the event that the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account is used subsequent to its cancellation, the Principal's liability in respect of the Facility will continue until confirmation of the cancellation of the Facility is received by ANZ.

ANZ may terminate the Facility at any time upon 30 days prior written notice to the Principal whether or not the Principal is in default of any of these Terms and Conditions.

ANZ may terminate the Facility immediately upon notice to the Principal if:

- (b) the Principal breaches these Terms and Conditions;
- (c) ANZ considers on reasonable grounds that the Principal has engaged in fraud; or

In such event, the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account will be automatically cancelled and no further credit will be extended on the Facility. Use of the cancelled ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account must cease immediately.

14.2 The Principal may terminate the Facility at any time by providing written notice to ANZ. ANZ will automatically cancel the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account from the date the written cancellation notice is received by ANZ. The Principal's liability in respect of the Facility (including any use of the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account) will continue until the Principal has taken all reasonable steps to confirm cancellation of the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account to ANZ and any moneys owing to ANZ are paid in full.

In the event that a Facility is cancelled by ANZ or the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account is terminated, whether by default or otherwise, the outstanding balance on the ANZ Lodged Purchasing Card Account will on demand be due and payable to ANZ. If the Principal is in default under the Facility, the Principal will also be in default under any other credit contracts that the Principal has with ANZ.

Any amount reasonably incurred or expended by ANZ in exercising its rights in relation to the Facility arising from any default (including expenses reasonably incurred by ANZ staff and facilities) are enforcement expenses and become immediately payable by the Principal. Notwithstanding the above, ANZ is not responsible for any loss to the Principal arising from:

- a) the acts or omissions of a Supplier or the Principal's arrangements with a Supplier
